AWAKENING

A JOURNEY BEGINS.

DIRECTED BY SOFIA LUNA PRODUCED BY ELIJAH STONE & MAYA REED MUSIC BY GABRIEL LUNA

RATED PG

When you are a child, life feels simple and endless, as if every day holds all the answers you'll ever need.

As you grow, doubts and fears slowly appear, but something inside you keeps whispering that you are moving forward.

Awakening is about accepting that growing up means saying goodbye to yesterday, not to lose who you were, but to finally awaken to who you are becoming.

Awakening

Verse 1

I was small enough to believe
That the world was just in front of me
Every day felt new and wide
Every answer lived inside
Running barefoot through the hours
Talking to the stars and flowers
I didn't know what time could take
I only knew how to awake

Pre-Chorus

Every step was just a door
I had never seen before
I didn't know I was becoming
Something more

Chorus

So goodbye yesterday
I see you fading in the light
I'm not afraid
I'm just learning how to open my eyes
Every moment leads me on
Every dream I carry stays
I don't lose who I was
I just say goodbye yesterday

Verse 2

I grew into a thousand doubts
Learned what fear was all about
Watched the world lose some of its glow
Still, something in me always knew
That even when the night feels long
There's a quiet moving on
Like a voice beneath the sound
Saying "stay awake now"

Pre-Chorus

All the things I couldn't see
Were already part of me
I was always slowly waking
Piece by piece

Chorus

So goodbye yesterday
I see you fading in the light
I'm not afraid
I'm just learning how to open my eyes
Every moment leads me on
Every dream I carry stays
I don't lose who I was
I just say goodbye yesterday

Bridge

I'm not running from the past
I'm not trying to erase
Every child I've ever been
Still walks with me this way
So goodbye yesterday
Thank you for the steps you gave
I'm not lost
I'm just learning how to change
If awakening is slow
That's the only way I know
I don't lose who I was
I just say goodbye yesterday

Outro

I'm awake...
Still becoming.

It speaks of moving forward under constant pressure, carrying doubts and setbacks while refusing to let them define you.

With every fall and every crack, something stronger takes shape, even when the process feels rough and unfinished.

Diamond in a Rock reminds us that hardship does not bury us, it sculpts us, slowly turning endurance into strength and becoming into purpose.

Diamond in a Rock

Verse 1

I've been walking with my head held low,
Trying to carry what the world won't show.
Every wrong turn, every second guess,
I wore my doubts like a second skin.
I've seen mirrors tell me I'm not enough,
Heard the silence say "this road is rough."
But somewhere under the weight I feel,
There's something here that's still real.

Pre-Chorus

Pressure don't ask if you're ready,
Time don't slow when you're unsteady.
But I'm learning through the shock —
You don't shine without the rock.

Chorus

I'm a diamond in a rock,
Still rough, still holding on.
Every crack, every knock,
Is shaping who I become.
I won't break, I won't stop,
Even when the night is long.
You don't find the light on top —
I'm a diamond in a rock.

Verse 2

I've been losing things I thought I'd keep,
Trading comfort just to learn how to breathe.
Every answer cost me something true,
But it taught me what I had to do.
I don't need the world to understand,
I just need to feel where I stand.
If there's a reason I'm still here,
It's bigger than my fear.
Every fall leaves a mark,
Every doubt leaves a spark.
I'm learning through the shock —
You don't shine without the rock.

Chorus

I'm a diamond in a rock,
Still rough, still holding on.
Every crack, every knock,
Is shaping who I become.
I won't break, I won't stop,
I won't break, I won't stop,
Even when the night is long.
You don't find the light on top —
I'm a diamond in a rock.

Bridge

Maybe I'm not who I planned to be,
But I'm closer to the truth in me.
I won't polish what's already gone,
I'll grow strong where I went wrong.

Final Chorus

I'm a diamond in a rock,
Every scar a proof of life.
I've been bent, I've been blocked,
But I survived the fight.
I wasn't buried by the dark —
I was shaped by it.

Outro

Still becoming...
Diamond in a rock.

Father...

When you are a child, your father feels like the ground beneath your feet, a place where safety exists without being questioned.

As you grow, distance appears, misunderstandings take shape, and you mistake freedom for walking away from the one who protected you.

Father is about realizing, often too late, that love was always there — and that becoming who you are means finally understanding the strength, sacrifice, and quiet presence that built you.

Father

Intro

Verse 1 – Childhood

I remember your shoulders, higher than the street,
The world felt quiet under your heartbeat.
Your hands were walls I could lean against,
I didn't know strength, I just felt safe.

Every laugh lived in your chest,
Every fall ended in rest.
I didn't ask how long it would last,
I thought the future was built like the past.

Pre-Chorus

You were the ground, you were the sound,
The place my fear could lay down.

Chorus

Father...
That's where I learned to breathe.
Father...
That's where I learned to believe.
I didn't know how fragile time could be,
I just believed you'd always be.

Verse 2 – Teenage years

Then something restless took my skin,
A fire I couldn't keep within.
I needed distance, needed lies,
Needed to break you in my eyes.

I pushed your love like it was a wall,
Mistook your silence for control.
I wanted to fall on my own ground,
Even if it meant losing you around.

Pre-Chorus

I thought freedom meant standing alone,
I didn't know I was breaking home.

Chorus

Father...
I fought what I didn't understand.
Father...
I slipped right through your hands.
I was afraid of what I'd become,
So I ran from who I was.

Verse 3 – Becoming a father

Then I held a life inside my arms,
Felt your voice inside my calm.
Every night, every silent fear,
Suddenly you were standing here.

I saw your choices in my own,
Every weight you carried alone.
All the things I never said
Started speaking in my head.

Pre-Chorus

Love doesn't ask to be explained,
It just stays through the pain.

Chorus

Father...
I see it now.
Father...
I know how.
Every step you took for me
Is walking back into me.

Final Chorus

Father...
Time feels thin these days.
Father...
I'm afraid of the moment you fade.
If I lose you before you know,
Then let this song be what I couldn't show.

Outro

It tells the story of chasing success with nothing but ambition, believing that winning means moving faster and climbing higher.

As money grows, relationships fade, nights grow empty, and the cost of success becomes impossible to ignore.

Money is about realizing that wealth can buy comfort and power, but it can also take time, truth, and the parts of yourself that mattered most.

Money

Intro

Verse 1

Started with nothing but a fire inside,
Ran the streets with a dream and a reason to grind.
Every win felt clean, every loss felt small,
Didn't hear the warning in the money call.

Pre-Chorus

City lights taught me how to run,
Counted my worth when the deal was done.

Chorus

Money made me rich, made me hard,
Bought the world, sold my heart.
Every door opened wide,
But I lost who walked by my side.
Money talks, never stays,
Takes your nights, steals your days.
I crossed the line, I paid the cost,
Found the gold and lost the most.

Verse 2

New suit, new name, new kind of fear,
Friends disappeared when the checks got clear.
Laughs turned thin, rooms got cold,
Success feels loud when you're alone.

Pre-Chorus

Thought control was power and pride,
Didn't see what I left behind.

Chorus

Money made me rich, made me hard,
Bought the shine, broke the spark.
Every win wrote a loss,
Every step raised the cost.

Bridge

You can't buy time.
You can't buy truth.
You can't buy back
The man you lose.

Final Chorus

Money made me rich, that's true,
But it took everything I knew.
If I could trade the crown I lost,
I'd pay it back, no matter the cost.

Outro

BEAUTIFULLY GUILTY

It begins without warning, when love appears quietly and refuses to be dismissed or explained away.

What starts as caution turns into certainty, as every doubt fades and every wrong turn suddenly makes sense.

Beautifully Guilty is about embracing a love that feels inevitable, choosing truth over fear, and accepting that some connections are worth claiming without regret.

Beautifully Guilty

Verse 1

I wasn't searching, I was standing still,
Letting life decide what it will.
Then you walked in, soft and sure,
Like a feeling I couldn't ignore.

Verse 2

I told myself I'd seen it all before,
That love was just an open door.
But something changed the moment you spoke,
Like a promise I never broke.

Pre-Chorus

We tried to fight it, tried to pretend,
This was just a moment, not the end.
But every doubt fell out of tune,
When hearts align too soon.

Chorus

We're guilty of finding the right one,
Of letting our shadows see the sun.
If loving you is a beautiful crime,
I'll confess it every time.
We're guilty, and it feels so true,
All the roads led me to you.
No regret, no need to run,
We're guilty of the right one.

Verse 3

Every wrong turn makes sense tonight,
Every lonely day feels right.
I see my future in your eyes,
No disguise, no alibi.

Verse 4

I never knew it could feel this clear,
No fear, no need to disappear.
If this is fate knocking at my door,
I won't deny it anymore.

Pre-Chorus

We tried to be careful, tried to be wise,
But love don't live by rules or lies.
What we found was rare and real,
And too strong not to feel.

Chorus

We're guilty of finding the right one,
Of letting our shadows see the sun.
If loving you is a beautiful crime,
I'll confess it every time.
We're guilty, and it feels so true,
All the roads led me to you.
No regret, no need to run,
We're guilty of the right one.

Bridge

Tell me you feel it too,
Every breath says it's you.
No turning back tonight,
This kind of love is right.

Final Chorus

We're guilty and we're not ashamed,
Some loves are meant to be claimed.
If destiny had a favorite song,
It would sound like us all along.
We're guilty of choosing love,
Of trusting what we're made of.
No excuses, no disguise,
Just the truth in our eyes.

Outro

Guilty...
Of the right one.

It speaks about being the one everyone relies on, carrying responsibility quietly while never showing how heavy it feels.

Day after day, the weight builds up, and strength becomes a habit rather than a choice.

Load is about realizing that true strength is not holding everything alone, but allowing yourself to share the weight and finally breathe.

Load

Intro

Verse 1

I wake before the city's up,
Coffee cold but I'm already tough.
Everybody leans when the ground feels thin,
They don't see the weight I'm in.

Pre-Chorus

If I slow down, it all might shake,
So I move fast for everybody's sake.

Chorus

I carry the load,
Keep it moving, keep control.
I carry the load,
So nobody else feels broke.
I don't say I'm close,
I don't say I'm low,
I just keep running
With the weight I know.

Verse 2

I know the look before they ask,
I'm the answer, I'm the task.
Some nights the noise is in my head,
But the world still needs me standing there.

Pre-Chorus

If I bend, it all might fall,
So I keep the pace, I take it all.

Chorus

I carry the load,
Every mile, every role.
I carry the load,
Like I'm made of stone.
But even stone
Can start to show
Cracks when the pressure grows.

Bridge

Then you reached without a sound,
Didn't fix me, just slowed me down.
Maybe strength don't mean alone,
Maybe I don't have to hold the throne.

Final Chorus

I carry the load,
But I don't have to run solo.
I carry the load,
But I can let it show.
If I let you know,
If I let it go,
The weight gets lighter
When I say so.

Outro

Whispered ending
I carry the load...

H O P E

Life feels suspended between doubt and endurance, where each day is held together by the simple act of continuing.

Hope appears quietly, not as a miracle, but as the decision to stay, to trust, and to take one more step.

Hope is about choosing to continue even without answers, finding strength in small moments, and letting patience become a form of courage.

Hope

Verse 1

I've been walking with the weight of days,
Trying not to show the cracks I face.
Every promise felt a little thin,
But I kept moving, breathing in.

I've seen love come and love go wrong,
Heard the silence after the song.
Still there's something I can't dismiss,
Hope looks like this.

Pre-Chorus

It doesn't shout, it doesn't shine,
It waits its turn, it bides its time.
Like a hand that finds yours in the dark,
Like a quiet spark.

Chorus

Hope looks like this,
Like staying when it's easier to quit.
Like trusting more than what you miss,
Hope looks like this.
It's not a miracle or a sign,
Just a heart saying "give it time."
When everything says "let it go,"
Hope says "no."

Verse 2

I've been standing at the edge of change,
Afraid of losing what remains.
Every ending feels too close,
But I'm learning how to hope.

I don't need the answers now,
Just a reason, just somehow.
Even in the doubt I feel,
Hope feels real.

Pre-Chorus

It's in the way the morning breaks,
In every chance we choose to take.
It's not loud, it doesn't insist,
Hope looks like this.

Chorus

Hope looks like this,
Like staying when it's easier to quit.
Like trusting more than what you miss,
Hope looks like this.
It's not a miracle or a sign,
Just a heart saying "give it time."
When everything says "let it go,"
Hope says "no."

Final Chorus

I carry the load,
But I don't have to run solo.
I carry the load,
But I can let it show.
If I let you know,
If I let it go,
The weight gets lighter
When I say so.

I carry the load...

Who doesn't know Ace? He walks in without a word, and somehow everyone knows the rules just changed.

He doesn't chase fame, luck, or trouble — trouble has a way of finding him when he's around.

Ace is the story of a man who turns silence into tension and presence into legend — not a name you hear, but one you feel before you see.

ACE

Yes.
That guy.

Ace

Intro

Yeah...
They call him Ace.

Verse

Walks in slow, room feels wide,
Doesn't say much, doesn't hide.
Every move like it's on time,
Doesn't chase — he lets it shine.
He don't sell dreams, don't explain,
He don't beg, he don't complain.
Just stands there, calm and straight,
Like he already knows his fate.
He don't try, he don't play,
That's why everybody stays.

Chorus

Ace — every woman wants the night,
Every man wants the way he rides.
No rush, no race,
He don't need luck — he's Ace.

Verse

He learned young how to stay cool,
Break the rules without the rules.
Doesn't talk about what he's done,
He just shows up when it's won.

Girls Chorus

(Stay cool)
(That's the rule)

Chorus

Ace — moves without a sound,
When he's there, the room turns round.
No mask, no face,
He don't fake it — he's Ace.

Final Chorus

Ace — not a myth, not a phase,
Just a way of living days.
No crown, no cape,
He don't chase it — he's Ace.

The noise grows louder, expectations pile up, and the space to breathe slowly disappears.

Breaking free starts as an inner refusal, a decision to stop wearing masks and stop living by borrowed rules.

Free is about reclaiming yourself, choosing risk over comfort, and accepting that real freedom begins the moment you stand your ground.

Free

Intro

Verse 1

Every screen tells me who to be,
Count the steps, repeat the dream.
Clock keeps talking, numbers rule,
Pressure dressed as something cool.

I smile back, I play along,
But something in me knows it's wrong.
If this is progress, tell me why
I feel less real every time.

Pre-Chorus

Static in my head won't sleep,
Heartbeat trying to break the beat.

Chorus

I wanna be free,
Out of the system watching me.
I wanna be free,
From the code that won't let me breathe.
Turn the lights, erase the plan,
I just wanna feel my hands.
I wanna be free.

Verse 2

They call it safety, call it smart,
Every move a data chart.
We dance inside invisible lines,
Borrowed days, rented time.

I tried to fit the perfect frame,
But I lost myself inside the game.
If this is living, what's the cost?
How much of me already lost?

Pre-Chorus

I hear my name inside the noise,
Human trying to find a voice.

Chorus

I wanna be free,
Out of the system watching me.
I wanna be free,
From the code that won't let me breathe.
Shut it down, let it fall,
I don't wanna run this wall.
I wanna be free.

Bridge (spoken / vocoder)

No control...
No design...
Just a pulse that's mine.

Final Chorus (bigger, funkier)

I wanna be free,
Even if it scares me to leave.
I wanna be free,
Even if I don't know what I'll be.
Drop the mask, break the chain,
Feel the funk inside the frame.
I wanna be free.

Outro

Whispered ending
Free...

What if a dream didn't let you wake up, not by force, but by invitation?

A rhythm follows you through the dark, each note knowing your name, pulling you deeper with every step.

Not Just Another Dream is a descent where sound becomes a trap and sleep becomes a doorway — because some dreams don't fade... they wait

Not Just Another Dream

Intro

(Piano ostinato + hand percussion)
(High violin or synth melody enters, slow and haunting)

Verse 1

The candles bent without a flame,
The rhythm whispered out my name.
Each step fell right into the beat,
Like the dark was moving me.

The melody stayed in the air,
Like something calling from somewhere.
Every breath fell into place,
Like I'd been here in another space.

Pre-Chorus

This wasn't sleep, this wasn't slow,
That line of sound kept pulling me home.

Chorus

This was not just another dream,
It moved in time, it moved in me.
Every shadow kept the pace,
Every note knew where to stay.
If I crossed where secrets sleep,
Then I was more than just asleep.
This was not just another dream.

(you remember)
(it remembers)

Verse 2

The violins cried soft and thin,
Like threads beneath my skin.
The same refrain, it never left,
Like a truth I hadn't kept.

A low bell rang on two and four,
The melody came back once more.
Not fear, not peace, but something true,
This dream was built to pull me through.

Pre-Chorus

I didn't fall, I didn't scream,
I followed sound between the seams.

Chorus

This was not just another dream,
It knew my step, it knew my need.
Like a door that swung on time,
Like a truth in four-four time.
If I wake, I'll still feel deep,
What the melody gave to me.
This was not just another dream.

Final Chorus

This was not just another dream,
It carved its sound inside of me.
If the night returns again,
I'll hear that line and follow then.
Somewhere deep where secrets keep,
I was more than just asleep.
This was not just another dream.

Outro

Imagine stepping straight into 2026 from 1985, no warning, no transition, just a world that suddenly doesn't speak your language anymore.

The streets glow brighter, time moves faster, and everything feels connected... except you.

Send Me Back is the story of a man displaced in time, torn between the warmth of the past and the question of whether he can learn to belong to the future.

Send Me Back

Intro

Verse 1

Last thing I knew it was neon rain,
Radio love and midnight trains.
I wake up cold in a different scene,
Glass and wires where the streets had been.

Everybody's talking through a screen,
Too many words, not what they mean.
I touch the air, it feels unreal,
Tell me this is how the future feels.

Pre-Chorus

I missed the turn, I lost the sign,
This world moved on without my time.

Chorus

Send me back,
To the night I recognize.
Send me back,
Where the moment stayed alive.
I was frozen in another dream,
Now nothing's quite the way it seems.
If this is now, I'm off the track —
Send me back.

Verse 2

Love was a look, love was a call,
Waiting by the phone on the wall.
Now it's fast, it's everywhere,
But nobody's really there.

I don't hate this shining place,
I just don't know my role in it.
I'm not broken, I'm just late,
Trying to keep up with the pace.

Pre-Chorus

I hear my heart behind the sound,
Still beating 80 miles down.

Chorus

Send me back,
To the night I recognize.
Send me back,
Where the moment stayed alive.
I was frozen in another dream,
Now nothing's quite the way it seems.
If this is now, I'm off the track —
Send me back.

Bridge

Maybe time is not my enemy,
Maybe I'm still learning how to be.
If I stay, I'll have to change,
But I don't wanna fade away.

Final Chorus

Send me back,
Or show me how to stay.
Send me back,
Or teach my heart another way.
I was built for a different sound,
But I'm still standing my ground.
If I don't run, if I adapt —
Don't send me back.

Outro

It starts with a decision, leave what no longer fits, step into the noise, and trust the movement more than the map.

The city becomes a test of nerve and desire, where danger and excitement blur into the same heartbeat.

A Better Place is about choosing forward motion over comfort, believing that the right place isn't found — it's created by those who keep running.

A Better Place

Intro

Verse 1

I crossed the city with a restless mind,
Streetlights moving double-time.
Didn't come for diamonds or the fame,
Just a chance to change my name.

Verse 2

I left my doubts in another zone,
New nights, but I'm not alone.
Didn't come here just to survive,
I came to feel this moment alive.

Pre-Chorus

Every step feels dangerous and right,
Like we're running through the night.

Chorus

We came for a better place,
Somewhere the rush don't fade away.
We came for a better place,
Where the dark turns into grace.
We're not running from yesterday,
We're running toward what we can be.
Yeah, we came for a better place.

Verse 3

Heartbeat racing with the sound,
City trying to slow me down.

Verse 4

Every doubt keeps falling back,
Now the future's on our track.

Pre-Chorus

Now the ground feels closer home,
We're not moving on our own.

Chorus

We came for a better place,
No rewind, no second-guess.
We're not hiding from yesterday,
We're moving fast into what's next.

VOCAL CLIMAX

I came for a better place...
Still I belie—ve...
Every step feels ri—ght...

Final Chorus

We came for a better place,
Even if it takes our sleep.
We didn't come to fade away,
We came to stand on our own feet.
Through the night, through the pain,
We keep running anyway.
Yeah, we came for a better place.

Outro

Zero Fucks Given

The world is shouting, chasing, panicking, and at some point, you decide not to join the noise.

While everyone else is trading peace for pressure, you step aside, breathe, and refuse to measure your life by their rules.

Zero Fucks Given is about choosing sanity over status, calm over chaos, and discovering that not caring can be the most radical freedom of all.

Zero Fucks Given

Intro

Verse 1

Alarm goes off, world's on fire,
Everyone's stressed, climbing higher.
Bills, deals, people talk,
Running fast just to stand and walk.

They say "care more", "play the game",
Lose your soul, win a name.
But I looked around and I laughed a bit,
'Cause honestly...

Pre-Chorus

They're screaming loud, they're losing sleep,
Chasing things they'll never keep.

Chorus

I don't give a shit,
No, not today, not a little bit.
I don't give a shit,
'Bout the noise, 'bout the counterfeit.
While they're breaking down trying to make it stick,
I'm breathing fine, yeah I'm legit.
I don't give a shit.

Verse 2

Boss man yelling like it's war,
Same old speech I've heard before.
Stocks go up, people fall,
Funny how nobody wins at all.

They call me crazy, say I'm wrong,
Say I won't last very long.
But I'd rather laugh than drown in it,
So honestly...

Pre-Chorus

They sell fear like it's gold,
I'm too busy staying whole.

Chorus

I don't give a shit,
No deadlines living in my head.
I don't give a shit,
'Bout the price they put on success.
They can keep the crown, keep the throne,
I'm doing fine just on my own.
I don't give a shit.

Verse 3 (spoken-sung)

Yeah, money talks, ego screams,
Everybody's chasing dreams.
I chased peace, I chased sleep,
That's a deal I get to keep.

Bridge

You stressed?
— Nah.
You scared?
— Nah.
You care?
— Nah, nah, nah.

Final Chorus

I don't give a shit,
And it feels amazing, gotta admit.
While the world spins losing grip,
I'm standing tall in the middle of it.
They can scream, they can flip,
I'm still smiling through all this mess.
I don't give a shit.

Outro

It doesn't arrive with fireworks or noise, just a quiet shift, as if the world suddenly makes room for one person.

In that stillness, you recognize a feeling you've never learned, yet somehow always known.

The First Time I Knew is about that rare moment when love doesn't ask to be chased or explained, it simply feels right, and you understand everything at once.

The First Time I Knew

The First Time I Knew

Intro

Verse 1

The room was full, yet something cleared,
Like every sound just disappeared.
I didn't know what I was waiting for,
Until you walked through that door.

Every step felt out of time,
Like the world drew a different line.
No spark, no fire, no grand display,
Just a calm that asked me to stay.

Pre-Chorus

I've known desire, I've known the chase,
But this felt still, this felt in place.

Chorus

That was the first time I knew,
Not from my past, but something true.
No perfect words, no point of view,
Just the world aligning me and you.

Verse 2

You said my name, it sounded right,
Like it had waited all my life.
I didn't feel the need to shine,
I didn't want to cross the line.

Pre-Chorus

No fear, no need to prove my place,
Just comfort in your open face.

Chorus

That was the first time I knew...

FINAL CHORUS (EPIC)

That was the first time I knew,
When every step felt overdue.
No need to change, no need to prove,
The world stood still when I met you.
If I was searching all this time,
It led me here, this moment true.
That was the first time I knew.

Every road taken, every mistake made, quietly points back to the same place.

Love stops being a search and becomes a choice, steady and certain, even when nothing else is promised.

All My Life Is You is about realizing that love is not something you find along the way, but the direction that gives meaning to the entire journey.

All My Life Is You

Intro

Verse 1

I've crossed the world with open hands,
Searching for a place to stand.
Every road I tried to follow
Led me closer to you somehow.

Verse 2

I've known the night, I've known the fear,
Loved too fast, then disappeared.
But every time I lost my way,
Your light was waiting there.

Pre-Chorus

We were strangers in the dark,
But our hearts already knew the spark.

Chorus

If I could choose just one truth to believe,
One name to hold, one dream to keep,
Every moment, every breath,
I would choose you... nothing else.

Verse 3

I don't promise a perfect sky,
Just a love that never hides.
When the world feels hard to face,
I'll be your strength, your safest place.

Verse 4

I don't need forever planned,
Just your heart inside my hand.
If I fall, if I break,
You're the chance I'll always take.

Pre-Chorus

Through the storms, through the fire,
This love lifts us higher.

Chorus

If I had one lifetime to give,
One reason to truly live,
Every road, every truth,
I would walk them all with you.
Through the pain, through the blue,
All my life... is you.

Final Chorus

If the world falls into the sea,
If tomorrow finds no me,
Every heartbeat, every vow,
I would choose you here and now.
Every lifetime, every truth,
All my life...
All my life is you.

Outro

The Ones We Never Loved

We move through life loving some people deeply, while others pass by untouched, unnoticed, left behind by timing or fear.

Only later do we realize how many connections never had the chance to exist, not because they weren't real, but because we weren't ready.

The Ones We Never Loved is about the quiet weight of missed loves, the lives that could have intersected with ours, and the tenderness of knowing they will always remain just out of reach.

The Ones We Never Loved

Intro

Verse 1

There are faces I still remember,
Smiles that passed me by.
Moments hanging in the silence
Of a gentle goodbye.

Verse 2

Some were lost to fear and timing,
Some to words unsaid.
We kept walking different roads,
Left our hearts ahead.

Pre-Chorus

We were standing at the doorway,
But we never stepped inside.

Chorus

These are the ones we never loved,
The dreams we let slip through our hands.
The nights we never dared to hold,
The lives we never planned.
We don't cry for what we lost,
But for what we never knew.
These are the ones we never loved,
Still softly passing through.

Verse 3

There were souls that brushed against us,
Just enough to stay.
Too early, too late, too fragile,
So we turned away.

Verse 4

We chose comfort over wonder,
Chose the safe and small.
And in choosing who we became,
We lost you after all.

Final Chorus

These are the ones we never loved,
Yet shaped us through the years.
The ghosts of all our almos,ts,
Still whispering they were here.
We don't mourn the love we lost,
But the love we never knew.
These are the ones we never loved...
And they made us who we grew.

LET MY PEOPLE RISE

Let My People Rise is about returning to the shared roots of the three great monotheistic religions, to the moment where faith, justice, and freedom first spoke as one.

It recalls a time when belief was a call to stand up against oppression, not divide, and when dignity mattered more than power.

This song is a reminder that before doctrines and borders, there was a single story — one of liberation, responsibility, and people rising together.

Let My People Rise

Intro

Verse 1

We were born beneath another's name,
Bent by fear, by dust, by chains.
We learned the sound of silent prayers
In a stolen land.

Then a voice rose through the firelight,
Not in anger, not in fear.
It spoke our pain into the day
So the world could hear.

Pre-Chorus

He said "stand" when we were broken,
He said "walk" when hope was gone.

Chorus

He said let my people rise,
Let them walk into the sun.
No more chains before their eyes,
No more battles left to run.
Through the night, through the flame,
Through the sea that knew his name,
He said let my people rise...
And we rose.

Verse 2

He carried law in trembling hands,
Love carved deep in stone.
He showed us who we were inside
Before we knew our own.

When the road was only sand and doubt,
When freedom felt too far,
He walked ahead with nothing
But the stars.

Pre-Chorus

Every step was faith alone,
Every breath a promised home.

Chorus

He said let my people rise...

Bridge (solo, soaring)

Not a king upon a throne,
Not a god, but chosen.
He never asked to be believed,
Only followed.

If freedom has a cost,
He paid it with his life.
If love must lead the lost,
He paid it every night.

Final Chorus

He said let my people rise,
And the waters opened wide.
Every tear, every cry,
Was carried to the other side.
We were slaves, now we stand,
As a people, as a land.
He said let my people rise...
And we are free.

Outro

Some battles leave no visible scars, only a quiet strength learned in silence and endurance.

Pain comes and goes, lessons remain, and survival slowly turns into self-understanding.

Still Here is about choosing to stay through the storm, discovering that resilience does not shout, it simply remains.

Still Here

Still Here

Intro

Verse 1

I've walked through rooms of heavy air,
Smiled while breaking everywhere.
I learned to move without a sound,
To keep my feet on fragile ground.

I've known the weight of silent pain,
The kind that doesn't leave a stain.
You don't see the marks it leaves,
But they live inside of me.

Pre-Chorus

I didn't fight, I didn't run,
I stayed until the storm was done.

Chorus

I'm still here,
After all the nights I fell apart.
Still here,
Holding every broken part.
I didn't need to scream or prove,
I just learned how to move.
I'm still here.

Verse 2

I've loved with caution, lost with grace,
Let go without erasing space.
Some things fade, some things stay,
Some lessons don't go away.

I've learned that strength is quiet too,
It doesn't need a point of view.
It breathes, it bends, it understands,
And slowly takes your hand.

Pre-Chorus

I let the world just pass me by,
And found myself on the other side.

Chorus

I'm still here,
With a heart that learned to heal.
Still here,
Knowing what is true and real.
I didn't rise, I didn't fall,
I just stayed through it all.
I'm still here.

Final Chorus

I'm still here,
Not because I had to fight.
Still here,
Because I chose the light.
When the noise all disappeared,
I found the strength that kept me here.
I'm still here.

Outro

A presence remains even after loss, carried in memory, gesture, and the quiet strength passed down.

Grief turns into guidance as love transforms itself into values, courage, and a voice that still speaks from within.

Nisso is about honoring those who shaped us, understanding that they never truly leave, and realizing we become the living continuation of what they gave.

Nisso

Intro

Verse 1

I still hear your voice in the morning wind,
Calling my name like you always did.
You left too soon, the world feels wide,
But your strength still walks by my side.

Every story, every scar,
Every lesson of who we are,
You planted deep before you went,
More than time, more than flesh.

Pre-Chorus

I didn't get the years I prayed,
But I got the fire you made.

Chorus

Nisso...
You live in me.
In my steps, in my dreams,
In the man I'm learning to be.
Nisso...
Though you're gone from my sight,
You rise with the sun,
You walk with my light.

Verse 2

I miss the way you said my name,
Like it meant something strong.
I miss the calm inside your hands,
The place I belonged.

You were the bridge, you were the ground,
When the world made too much sound.
Even now when I lose my way,
I hear you say...

Pre-Chorus

Stand tall.
Remember who you are.

Chorus

Nisso...
You live in me.
In my blood, in my breath,
In the truth you left with me.
Nisso...
I carry your flame,
Every step that I take
Still speaks your name.

Bridge

You didn't leave me alone,
You became my backbone.
When I walk into fear,
You are here.

Final Chorus

Nisso...
Hear my voice tonight.
I am strong because you were,
I am here because you tried.
Nisso...
Though you left too soon,
You live on in me,
And I will carry you.

Outro

When the world feels heavy and the night stretches on, presence becomes more powerful than words.

This song speaks to quiet companionship, the kind that does not promise solutions, only closeness.

With Me is about choosing to stay, offering calm, warmth, and the simple truth that you do not have to face anything alone.

With Me

Intro

Verse 1

When the night feels longer than the day,
When the light begins to fade,
You don't have to face it on your own,
Just stay with me.

When the road is hard to see,
When your heart feels weak,
You don't have to run away,
Just stay with me.

Chorus

With me,
Stand right here with me.
With me,
That's all you need to be.
No promises, no guarantees,
Just stay with me.

All Together

From far away, borders disappear and differences soften into a single light.

Voices, colors, and stories converge, reminding us that we share the same fragile home.

All Together is about unity on a planetary scale, the simple truth that beyond distance and division, we belong to one world, beating as one heart.

All Together

Intro

Verse 1

From a distance, we look so small
Just a blue light in the dark
Different voices, different names
But we're breathing the same spark

Pre-Chorus

No borders when you look from the sky
No lines when the stars go by

Chorus

All together, here we stand
One small world, one beating heart
All together, hand in hand
Lost in space, but not apart
Under the sun, under the stars
This tiny planet is who we are

Verse 2

Every color, every sound
Every story ever told
We're just travelers passing through
On a spinning grain of gold

Pre-Chorus

If the universe is wide
Why should love be hard to find?

Chorus

All together, here we stand
One small world, one beating heart
All together, hand in hand
Lost in space, but not apart
Under the sun, under the stars
This tiny planet is who we are

Bridge

If we listen, we will hear
The same hope, the same fear
From the silence to the noise
We're one people, one voice

Final Chorus

All together, now and here
On this planet drifting free
All together, crystal clear
You are me, and I am we
Under the sun, under the stars
This tiny planet is who we are

Time does not rush, it transforms.

Each moment builds on the last, shaping motion, matter, and meaning through patience rather than force.

w8 (Wait) is about evolution in progress, the quiet power of becoming, and the understanding that everything arrives exactly when it is ready.
